Celebrating our Landcare Centre this Springtime

Visitors to the annual Springtime on the Mountain festival (27 - 28 September) are in for a treat at our Landcare Centre on Hartley Rd. As one of the featured venues, our thriving “gardens” showcase a great variety of native plants that are indigenous to the mountain. At this time of year, many flowering shrubs are at their best, bringing in birds, butterflies and other insects.

Enjoy the extensive plantings, follow the small winding tracks and pause by the waterhole. And why not bring friends and family to picnic at one of the tables nestled beside the forest?

Educational signs provide information about the native species, the many birds that frequent the place, and the vines that are host to the endangered Richmond Birdwing Butterfly.

Lending a Hand

Our Landcare volunteers do great work in maintaining the site, helping to showcase our regeneration work and enhance our reputation in the local community and beyond.

If you would like to lend a hand, do join our Tuesday Team, which meets at the Centre on the first Tuesday of each month at 8am. Our workers contribute a couple of hours of light weeding, followed by morning tea. This is a great way to meet like-minded enthusiasts and learn about the work of regeneration.

Please contact Judith on 0429 808 206 or email: juditroland@yahoo.com.au if you would like to join the Tuesday Team.
